

The Christmas Carols and Songs Festival

[1]

Every year, Toruń is visited by several hundreds of artists from across the Poland: soloists, vocal and instrumental ensembles and choirs. Each of them presents two songs: a traditional carol and a Christmas song. But of course, it is possible to sing two carols.

Participants of the festival are judged in three age categories (up to 12 years, 12 - 16 and over 16) by the professional jury. The contest is followed by granting the awards and the concert of winners. Each year, we can also see a star of the festival on the stage. It is also a charity event. On the second day, there is a concert of participants of the festival held at the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church on Stawki, during which the money is collected for the "Nadzieja" Hospice for Children.

Organiser: the Catholic Families Association - Stawki community.
